VERDICT AGAINST LAFAYETTE MAIN

Jury Gave Plaintiff Hewitt $482.46-Motion to Have Verdict Set Aside will be Heard by Judge Waller Today.

The entire day in the court of common pleas was taken up with the arguments in the case of B. H. Hewitt vs. Lafayette F. Main of North Stonington, the evidence in which case was heard last week. Although Mr. Main stated he thought he could get his argument in in an hour, and Attorney Hull wanted but a few minutes, the entire day was gone when the case was cleared up. The jury considered the matter a little over an hour and returned with a verdict of $462.46 for the plaintiff, in a suit for about $600.

The opening argument was made by Attorney H. A. Hull, who reviewed the facts in the case briefly. Mr. Main then addressed the jury in an interesting manner and held the attention of the jury throughout the two hours which he occupied in setting forth his claims. He observed well the rules and punctuated his address with gesticulations. He referred to the way his cases had been conducted and to the agreements which he had made and the fact that he had not been given credit for certain payments. Part of his argument he had written, while there were documents which he used to refresh his memory and prompt him in his address. He occupied the remainder of the morning session.

Alfred Comstock, the 18 year old son of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. The boy was taken to his home, but was unable to give a coherent account of his disappearance. Ha had apparently had nothing to eat since Sunday and is very weak. He says that he slept in a barn on the farm for two nights.

The boys separated at the forks of the road, and that was the last seen of Alfried until Tuesday morning." It happened that he did not have the collection money, it being carried by his hypother.

Sheriffs Brown, Tubbs and Woods searched the country thoroughly on Monday without results and the larger children of the Uncasville school, under the direction of Mr. Comstock, scoured the country as far west as the Colchester road in their efforts to find the boy.
Mr. Comstock states that he believes that the boy was given drugged candy and that he wandered away while under the effect of the drug. The lad is weak on account of lack of food, but does not seem to have received any serious injury and will probably be all right again in a short time, as the result of the care that is being given him.
